Message From The President

The American Hellenic Educational Progressive Association (AHEPA) plays a vital role in preserving and promoting Hellenism, especially among Greek-Canadian communities and the broader public. By fostering a deep appreciation for Hellenic ideals such as democracy, philosophy, education, and civic responsibility, AHEPA ensures that the rich legacy of Greek culture continues to thrive in the modern world.

Members gain access to a variety of cultural and educational programs, including scholarships, leadership training, and heritage events that honor Greek history and traditions. Whether through organizing community service projects, participating in youth mentorship, or supporting educational initiatives like the Hellenic History Tournament, AHEPA provides meaningful ways to stay engaged with one's roots while making a positive impact

Furthermore, AHEPA's promotion of Hellenism strengthens community ties and fosters a sense of identity and pride among Greek Canadians. It serves as a bridge between the diaspora and Greece, enhancing cultural diplomacy and mutual understanding. In a diverse and fast-paced society, the preservation of cultural heritage is essential, and AHEPA's efforts help sustain a vibrant, living connection to the past while encouraging active engagement in civic and cultural life today

Timothy P. Tzanakos,
President, AHEPA Montreal

Hellenic History Tournament

This past weekend, we proudly hosted the AHEPA District 23 Hellenic History Tournament in Montreal. Fourteen teams from Montreal, Ottawa, and Toronto came together for a spirited and unforgettable celebration of knowledge and camaraderie.

A special thank you to Co Chair Byron Yankou and Co Chair James Hutchison and their committee for their outstanding organization, and congratulations to the Ottawa team, "Seleucid Smackdown," sponsored by the Parnasos Hellenic Cultural Society of Ottawa, for their well-earned victory.

We were honoured to welcome distinguished guests, including Senator the Honourable Leo Housakos, MP Emmanuella Lambropoulos, and EMSB Director General Nick Katalifos, whose presence made the event even more memorable.

Through gatherings like these, we not only honour the timeless legacy of Hellenism but inspire new generations to carry forward the greatness of Greek history.
