Montreal AHEPA Chapter Meeting & Dinner With The Supreme President

January 13 (Casa Grecque)

The AHEPA Montreal Chapter meeting held on Tuesday, January 13th at Casa Grecque in Laval (Boul. Daniel Johnson) was a powerful reflection of the true spirit of brotherhood and service that defines AHEPA.

The evening was made especially meaningful by the presence of our Supreme President Bro. Chris Kaitson and Canadian President Bro. Anastasios Moussas, whose leadership underscored the importance of unity and shared purpose across our organization. Surrounded by other distinguished guests (Bro. Nick Pantieras, District 23 Governor, Bro. James Hutchison, VP AHEPA Canada, Bro. Bill Sioulas, VP Communications of AHEPA Canada, Xenophon Scoufaras, PCP AHEPA Canada) and dedicated members, the meeting highlighted the ongoing commitment of AHEPA Montreal to strengthening our community through philanthropy, fellowship, and Hellenic values.

A particularly proud moment came as four new members were formally initiated by the Supreme President, symbolizing both growth and continuity within our chapter.

The meeting also reaffirmed AHEPA's active role in community support, with the presentation of a $1,000 donation to the Hellenic Community of Montreal by Timothy P. Tzanakos, President of AHEPA Montreal in support of the Socrates HGCM Fundraiser, a cause close to the hearts of many in attendance.

Following the official proceedings, members and guests gathered for dinner, where additional notable members of the AHEPA family (Alexandra Sevapsidis, President DOP Meandros 168 and Helen Kalipolidis, Secretary DOP Meandros 168) joined in an atmosphere of camaraderie and friendship.

The evening concluded not just as a meeting, but as a celebration of unity, shared values, and the enduring impact of AHEPA's work within the Montreal community.

Finally, I would like to thank Peter Chiotis of Casa Grecque for the great food and hospitality.
